UNIVERSAL REGISTER,

Correct and complete for 1750.

Lists of Parliament, ex- amined by the TEST ROLLS, &c.	Births and Marriages of Princes.
SCOTCH and IRISH Peers.	Court and City Offices.
	Army and Navy, &c.

EIGHTH EDITION.

Why will the sculking, paultry, Lift-patchers vent their dirty Spleen in forging groundless Aspersions? That I had my Lifts flung at my Head. Why will they always hood-wink their few Admirers through foul bottomless Paths? Can no Truth tumble from their filthy Anvil? I am ready to declare, on Oath, that I never had a Lift flung at me, nor do I deal with, or know such Bullies. I am certain no one of them dare give me any personal Insult; if they do, I'll take no other Law than Taliois.

Their Lifts for 1750 are now at their Ne plus ultra, they never can be worse: I have prov'd to several Gentlemen, and am ready to do it to any one, nay even to them, that my Lifts for 1748 are correct, where their new are all false.

To the Impartial Public.

'Tis with Reluctance I am bound to declare, that after examining the Three different Lists of the Army and Navy, &c. &c. &c. published as the most complete, the most correct, and the most exact, as they say, in all Respects that ever appeared, they have given me much more Trouble to make them really so than those I published last Year: To give a reference to any of them, would be a high Affront to the others; there are above 10000 (modest) Blunders among them, which, as 'tis injurious to assert without a Proof, I am ready at all Times to produce them as corrected by me. The most complete has 18 Regiments more than	}	are in the Service.

80 Colonels,

Admiralty, Navy, Ordnance, Greenwich, Customs, Excise, the Court, and every other Part as extraordinary in its Branch as these.

'Tis therefore here needless to give further Trouble, but beg Leave to refer their curious Buyers to a perusal of these their most complete, most correct, and most exact Labours, revised and corrected by their most obliged, most faithful, and most humble Servant.

I offer'd to leave their Comedies of Errors, with my Corrections, at several Shops, but none durst venture, or had Grace enough, to receive them.

Mutton four Times a Week to the Indisposed, I wish them always so used, and honestly dealt by. But too many cormorant VESTRYS, CHURCH WARDENS, OVERSEERS, &c. hurry poor industrious Families to this Charity, and Ruin their own Constitutions by gormandising to the greatest Excess the Money so collected.

I have known pityful Church-Wardens who could not make a Meal without the nicest Delicacies in its Season, who could scarce pay their Rent.

I have paid the Poor's-Rate for poor Families, to prevent these CANIBALS taking necessary Utensils out of their Houses.

ses. O FATAL, CRUEL, ill-tim'd misaply'd CHARITY.

I have heard of Children being in Hospital schools, &c. who had their Footman to attend them. Real Objects find their Admittance next to an Impossibility.

I have heard of such Mismanagements, Irregularities, &c. that I wish I could hear of an End to them. And to that daily horrid Practice of imprisoning industrious poor Creatures, who by no Means can satisfy merciless Creditors.

Were it in my power, I would expend more to support those Funds and to rectify such Enormities, than to purchase a perpetual SEAT in both H — s's.
